A Letter from the Editor

To the students, present and past, of the University of Massachusetts Amherst,

In this past year the University of Massachusetts has been faced with many changes. We have faced the reality of terror and hatred. We have seen faculty downsizing, class cancellations, and academic stress due to budget cuts. Yet we have also seen our university grow. Ours is a growth beyond a new addition to the School of Management or the construction of a new Engineering building. This is not memorable growth. We have grown as a community, as a rich cooperative power that will persist in all of us beyond our undergraduate years. In the wake of September 11, we have banded together to fight hatred and celebrate diversity. By holding a candle at the vigil, saying a prayer, or simply saying hi to someone you did not know, you embodied that change and growth. That is memorable.

For one hundred and thirty three years the University of Massachusetts has published the Index Yearbook in an attempt to provide students with a lasting memory of each year. We as a staff have also faced many changes including, what appears to be, a fading of interest in printed yearbooks. We, like the UMass community have adjusted to the change in today's culture and have adapted the yearbook to be less of an account of sports statistics, and more of a collection of what made UMass unique during the academic year, 2001-2002. The Year in Pictures was created as a result of the year not for the year. So I ask you now, whether now be fall 2002 or thirty years after you graduate, to remember the changes and the growing strengths from this year, and to keep them with you always. Enjoy your memories.

Best Wishes,

Brian Kelly
Editor-In-Chief
Index Yearbook
2001-2002

Some say the world will end in fire,
Some say in ice.
From what I've tasted of desire
I hold with those who favor fire.
But if it had to perish twice,
I think I know enough of hate
To know that for destruction ice
Is also great
And would suffice.

Distinguished Teaching Awards

The campus' top teachers and academic advisors were honored Wednesday May 15, 2002 at the annual awards banquet sponsored by the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research. Three faculty and two graduate students received Distinguished Teaching Awards and Outstanding Academic Advisor Awards were presented to a faculty member and a professional staffer. The four recipients of the 2002 Samuel F. Conti Faculty Fellowships were also honored at the event.

Distinguished Teaching Awards were bestowed upon Alexandrina Deschamps, assistant professor of Women's Studies, History professor Ronald Story, Communication professor Michael Morgan, and two teaching assistants: Michael Thompson of Chemistry and Ieva Zake of Sociology.

Established in 1962, the Distinguished Teaching Award is regarded as the campus's most prestigious prize for classroom instruction. The honor includes a plaque and a monetary award of $3,000 for faculty members and $2,000 for teaching assistants. The names of DTA winners are also enshrined on permanent displays in the Lincoln Campus Center and the recipients are recognized during Undergraduate Commencement.

Nominations for the award are made by current and former students to a committee of faculty, undergraduates and previous graduate student winners of the prize. The committee makes the award selections.

For their efforts in advising, professor Elizabeth Petroff of Comparative Literature and Manuela Pacheco-Littlefield of the Bilingual Collegiate Program were presented the Outstanding Academic Advisors Awards.

In recognition of their contributions, Petroff and Pacheco-Littlefield each received plaques and cash awards of $3,000.

This year, Conti Faculty Fellowships were awarded to Psychology professor Rachel Keen Clifton; Lila M. Gierasch, professor and head of the Biochemistry and Molecular Biology Department; Michael F. Malone, professor and head of the Chemical Engineering Department; and History professor Stephen Nissen-baum.

Conti fellows receive a cash award of $3,000 and a year's leave of absence to encourage them to concentrate on activities related to graduate education, research, creative work and scholarly attainment.

Nominations for the fellowships are put forth by department heads to their respective deans with final selections made by a committee of the Faculty Senate's Research Council. Selection is based on demonstrably outstanding accomplishment and potential for continued excellence in research and scholarly or creative activity.

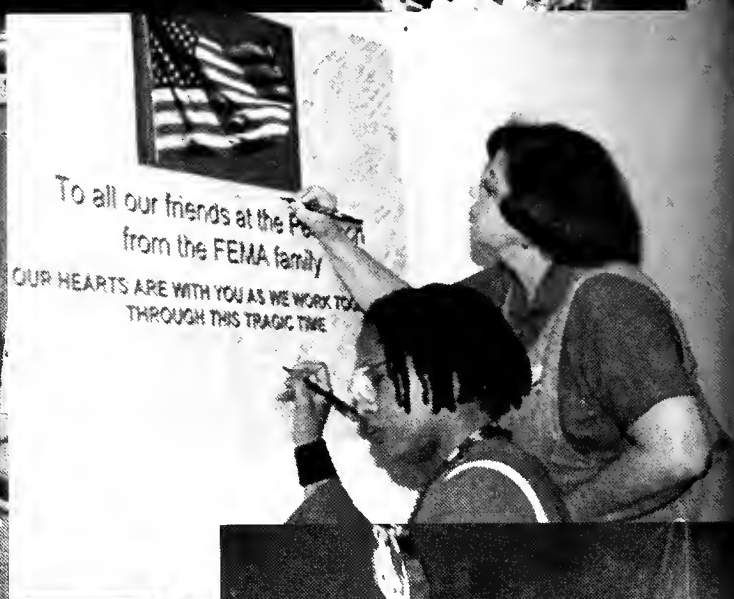

In April, Distinguished Academic Outreach Awards were presented to Communication professor Sut Jhally, Biology professor Ed Klekowski and Leda McKenry, associate professor of Nursing.

Three Kings Day January 6th

The celebration of "Three Kings Day" takes place on the 6th of January and is commonly known as the celebration of the Epiphany. Observed throughout Europe and Latin America, it is also known as "Little Christmas". It is told that three kings set out from three different parts of the known world following a star in search of the "King of Kings" to Jerusalem. These three kings were named Gaspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. Arriving in Jerusalem on the 6th of January, they brought the new born baby gifts of gold, myrrh and frankincense.

"Ramadhan" is the ninth month of the Islamic calendar during which Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset. The Month of Ramadhan is also believed to be the month in which the Holy Qur'an was sent down from heaven. It is a time of direction, and a means of Salvation. It is common for Muslims to go to the mosque and spend several hours praying and fasting. When the fast ends (on the first day of the month, Shawwal) it is celebrated for three days. Eid al-Fitr (the feast of Breaking the Fast) is celebrated and people gather to pray in the mosque.

Kwanzaa

December 26th to January 1st

"Kwanzaa" reemphasizes a sense of pride in the history and achievements of African-American people and is based upon seven principles of life. The seven principles of Kwanzaa are: Umoja which means Unity; Kujichagulia which represents Self-Determination; Ujamaa is Collective work and responsibility; Ujamaa stands for Cooperative Economics; Nia is the principle that stands for Purpose; while Kaamba represents Creativity; and finally, Imani which means Faith. Each day for seven days, a candle is lit in the Kinara to represent each of the seven principles.

Chanukah

1st of Kislev to the 2nd of Tevet

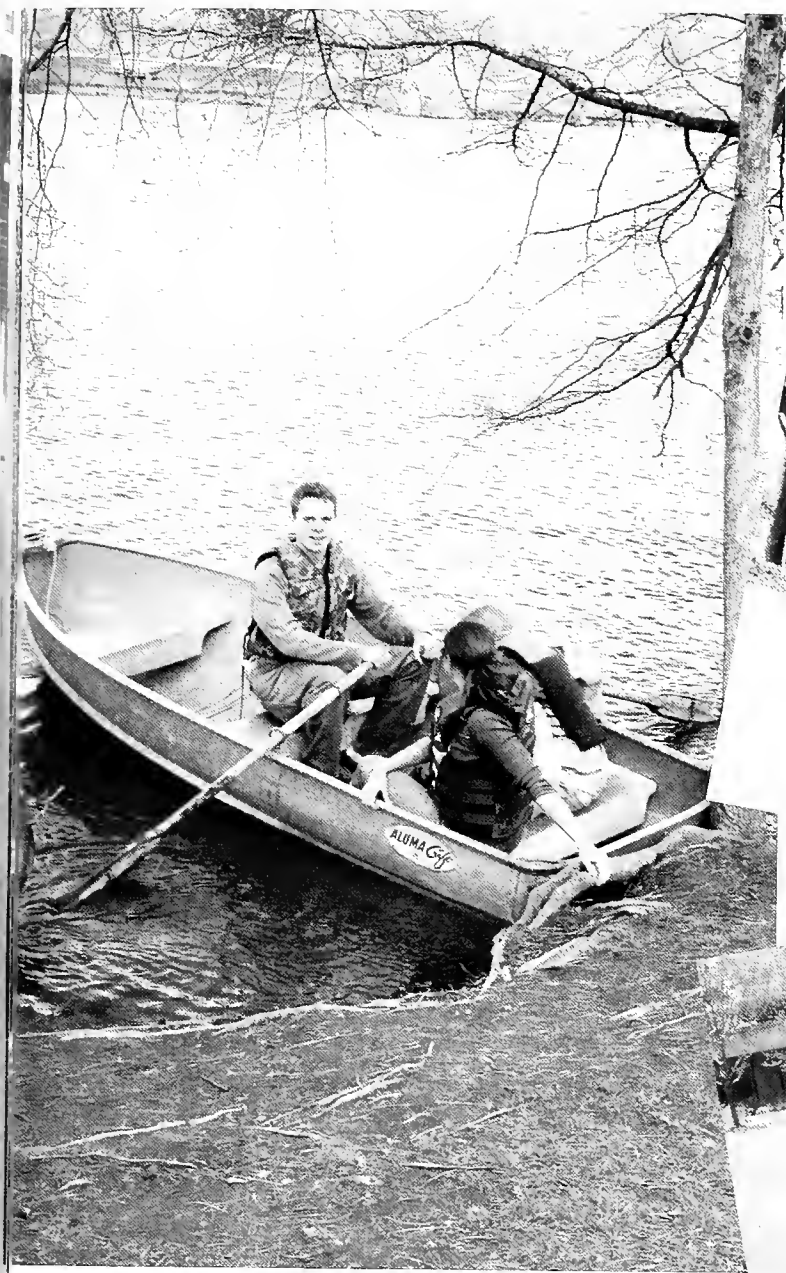

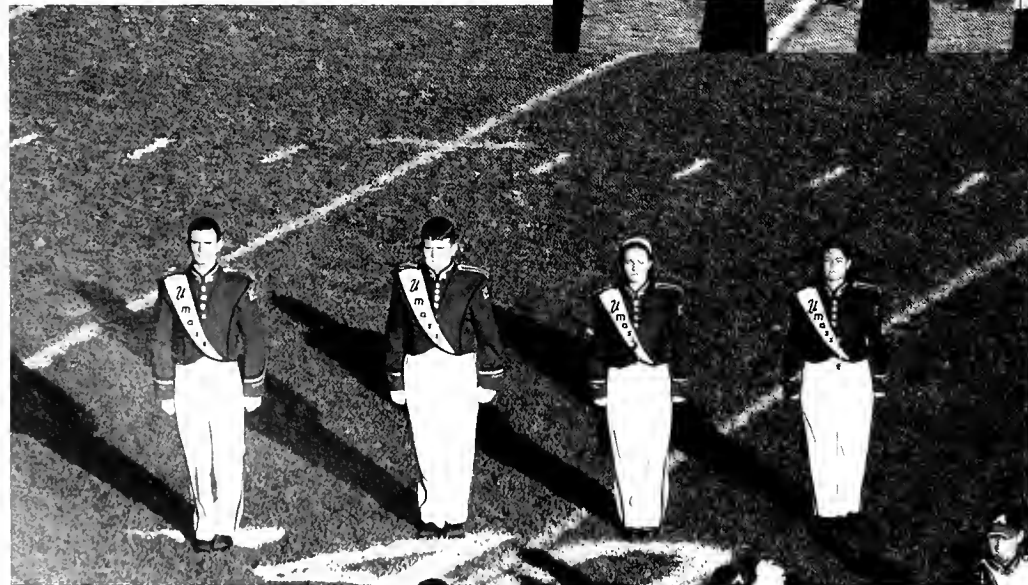

Chanukah begins on Sunday evening, December 9th, with the lighting of the menorah and ends at sunset on Monday, December 17th. Jewish warriors known as the "Maccabees" won their religious and national freedom. In 167 B.C., the Jews returned to Jerusalem to rebuild the Temple. They had only a small amount of oil to light the menorah, but miraculously it remained lit for 8 days and other reasons. Chanukah is celebrated for 8 days.

Graduation

A Letter from The Chancellor

Dear Graduates,

The Trustees, faculty, and staff of the University of Massachusetts Amherst celebrate the accomplishments of the Class of 2002 and the conclusion of a remarkable journey.

The graduating seniors of 2002 came to Amherst from 42 states and 28 countries. You left home, family, and familiar friends behind to begin a long journey, hoping that the people and ideas you would encounter here would enlarge your world in ways unimagined. We celebrate the success of that journey and the courage, resilience, and intelligence that brought you this far. And we acknowledge that it is time to begin the journey anew. The world is waiting for you.

That world needs for you to live the values you have learned here, values woven into the fabric of community life at UMass. Ours is a community committed to excellence, to striving for the highest standards of achievement in our work. Ours is a community committed to justice, to creating a more equitable society, to securing human dignity around the globe, to helping others become their best, fullest selves.

On that strange and terrible September 11 of last year, the Class of 2002 saw its collective commitments made visible. The UMass family lost eleven of its members in the hours after those airplanes crashed into the World Trade Center towers. Shock, fear, anger, and grief rippled across campus, calling us together. I will always remember that afternoon, when we stood around the campus pond, thousands strong, holding candles and consoling one another. We learned to cry together and to find hope, to endure the loss and lean into the light. We learned first-hand that ours is a community of living values.

You are now joining a larger community of living values-the family of UMass alums. Its members look forward to meeting you and helping you continue your journey.

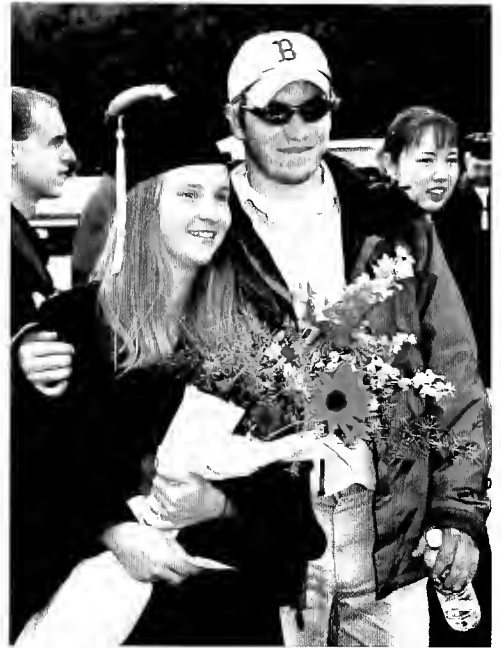

As you go forth from here, keep striving for excellence. Keep working for justice. Keep taking good care of one another. And take good care of the UMass family name.

Marcellette G. Williams
Chancellor

Jonathan Charles Galenski

We are so very proud of your many accomplishments through the years as an athlete, musician, community leader, and scholar. Continue to excel in your many endeavors because you are destined to be successful throughout your life.

How quickly four years have passed from the moment you began your academic life at the Isenberg School of Management at UMass! We are so very excited about your future successes.

We love you tremendously! Our hopes and dreams for you will always be filled with much love and compassion. Congratulations, Jonathan, with many successes awaiting you.

Love,

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU

That's What Beauty Means to Me!

Colors of the autumn leaves,
Frost lying on the trees,
Feeling the ocean breeze,
Given the spirit of PEACE & TRANQUILITY.
That's what BEAUTY means to me.

A little child, on Christmas Morn.
The day the Prince of Peace was born.
Glowing of the Christmas Trees,
Eagles flying high and free.
That's what BEAUTY means to me.

When my little girl
said to me:
"Mommy you were always there,
Mommy you always cared."
That's what BEAUTY means to me.

Skiing down the mountain high,
Knowing I had the courage and strength to rise above.
Always having my Savior's
and Husband's love.
That's what BEAUTY means to me.

EACH TIME SHE LEAVES I FEEL A LITTLE SADNES

EACH time she leaves I feel a little sadness
Feeling so proud at the same time of all her Accomplishment
Wishing our time together would never end
Yearning for the little girl...Where did the time go
Asking GOD to please protect her...please GOD please keep
Her from harm

Knowing I will see her soon takes away some of the Sadness, but still feeling like my best friend is leaving

MY ANGEL, MY DAUGHTER, I LOVE YOU SO

TANIA:

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR GRADUATION AND ALL YOUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS DURING ALL THESE YEARS AND IN THE FUTURE. VERY PROUD OF YOU. WE WISH YOU HAPPINESS, HEALTH, AND LOVE. WE LOVE YOU AS HIGH AS THE SKY, AS MUCH AS THE STARS, AND AS DEEP AS THE SEA. MAY GOD AND THE GUARDIAN ANGEL BE WITH YOU AT ALL TIMES.

MOM, DAD, ZILIA

DEAREST FRANK -

WE KNOW HOW MANY LONG AND HARD HOURS YOU PUT ON TO GET TO THIS POINT. MAY ALL YOU WISH FOR AND DESERVE COME TRUE.

WITH ALL OUR LOVE AND AFFECTION:

MOM - DAD - MATT & CANDY

Dear Jen,

We all remember your first day of kindergarten, as if it were yesterday...and now you are graduating from college.

We are all so proud of you! Not only are you a wonderful daughter, a great sister and aunt, but also a wonderful friend.

Dad gave you words of wisdom before your SATs. My words of wisdom are always be true to yourself.

Today I thought about your beautiful face and felt your excitement for life and your genuine happiness, and I, as your mother, burst with pride as I realized that my dreams for you came true.

What an extraordinary person you have become and as you continue your journey please remember always how very much we love you.

Congratulations Sweetheart!

Dad, Mom, Kim, Mark, Sarah, Ryan,

Lisa, Scott & Chelsey

Jeff Marmo

Jeff,

Twenty years ago you walked out the door headed for Wysowl Nursery School. Now you're a University of Massachusetts graduate!

We are so proud of you,
We are so happy for you,
We are so blessed to have you in our lives.

Congratulations -
We love you.

Mom, Dad,

On this day that you graduate from college,
You leave with more than just a wealth of knowledge.
You leave with the hopes of following your dream,
And many new friends to help you with your schemes.
You see you've accomplished what you had set out to do,
And also have made your family so very proud of you.

With much love,

Mom, Dad, Nana, Pop-pop, Arlene, Dave, Kevin,
Kim and Matt

Kevin Luz Santos

Steven Luz Santos

Remembering you as young children not knowing what to do, but running around and enjoying life for everything it is. As parents we had high expectations for both of you and both of you exceed them by far. But soon both of you grew up quickly right before our very eyes. You became the mature adults that you are now, but you still have a childish light in you which is still running around enjoying life for everything it is, and can be.

Everything either one of you has done has always been to its best ability, with no exceptions. Both of you have made us proud and have fulfilled all your dreams. For example, in high school you both performed great in academics, performing arts, sports, student council, etc. However, we remembered the night of Kevin's Baccalaureate when he asks, "Why are you crying?" We could only reply that we just saw our son Kevin the President of his senior class pass the Senior Candle to his brother Steven, who was going to be the President of his own senior class the following year. We were so proud of both of you. But now once again and together once again, both of you fulfilled your dream of graduating college, and made your family and friends even more proud than they ever have been. We can't explain our feelings in words, without shedding a tear for both of you.

- Congratulations on your accomplishment of graduating college, good luck from here on in, and lots of love. Pai, Mae, & Nelson

FUJIFILM

Fifty years of manufacturing medical miracles for the world.

For a half century, the employees at Merck's
Flint River Plant have been doing just that.

For five decades the employees at the Albany plant have manufactured active pharmaceutical ingredients, in bulk form, for lifesaving medicines. After shipping to other Merck plants for finishing and packaging, these miracle drugs are distributed around the globe.

Because of the products made by these employees, thousands of people across the world are living longer, healthier lives.

We are committed to bringing out the best in medicine for another 50 years.
